EZBUY USER GUIDE

1. Login
    - As a customer:
    Login:The customer has to enter his/her email address and password.
    Sign up:He/she can create a new account by registering and providing the required details.
    - As an admin(Only one admin account exists):
    The admin has to enter their username and password.

2. Customer features
    - A customer can freely browse all the products without logging in.(display products)
    - To place an order , a customer needs to be logged in. All the products are displayed on the screen .
    - For ordering products, the customer can add products to the cart or remove products. They can view their cart and then place an order. The total bill amount is also displayed.
    - Customers can view their order history,order id and other order details.They can also contact their delivery agent.

3. Admin features
    - Admin can insert a new product and delete a product.
    - Admin can view all the orders that have been placed.
    - Admin can also view statistics of the products i.e
        - Most revenue generating product
        - Top 5 most purchased products
        - Products with low stock (qty<5)

Note: To select an option, please enter the option number (such as 1,2,3 etc)